

2010 Auction Calendar

6th January - 10am	General
20th January - 10am	Collectors' & General
3rd February - 10am	General
17th February - 10am	General
3rd March - 11am	Antiques & Fine Art
17th March - 10am	General
31st March - 10am	General
14th April - 10am	General
17th April - 11am	Sporting Guns & Country Pursuits
28th April - 10am	Collectors' & General
12th May - 10am	General
26th May - 10am	General
9th June - 11am	Antiques & Fine Art
23rd June - 10am	General
7th July - 10am	General
21st July - 10am	General
11th August - 10am	General
14th August - 11am	Sporting Guns & Country Pursuits
25th August - 10am	General
8th September - 10am	General
22nd September - 11am	Antiques & Fine Art
6th October - 10am	General
20th October - 10am	Collectors' & General
3rd November - 10am	General
17th November - 10am	General
20th November - 11am	Sporting Guns & Country Pursuits
1st December - 11am	Antiques & Fine Art
15th December - 10am	General

NB: Please check start times and viewing with the saleroom prior to attending as these may vary from sale to sale.

Antiques & Fine Art Sale, Collectors' & Sporting Guns and Country Pursuits – Are available for Online Live Bidding.

General Antiques and Later Effects Sales

400-600 lots of affordable items including ceramics & glassware, silver & silver plate, antique, modern & costume jewellery, household effects, pictures & prints, antique & modern furniture with prices generally from £5-500. Most of the lots in these auctions come from local deceased estates where a complete house clearance service has been conducted.

Catalogues for these auctions are provided in a simple list form with descriptions of items but without published estimates. Our popular e-subscription service provides advance notice of these sales and the lots list is e-mailed to subscribers prior to the viewing. To subscribe to this free service simply send us an e-mail using 'e-flier' as the subject and including your name and contact details.

Viewing is held the day before the sale from 2pm to 7pm and from 9am on the morning of the sale, with the sale commencing at 10am.

Antiques and Fine Art Sales

An offering of the highest quality and most sought after items appearing in our Chester rooms. Categories include fine English, European and Oriental ceramics, Antique and high quality modern jewellery, oil paintings and watercolours, antique furniture including clocks and rugs, Works of Art and other interesting, unusual and decorative lots.

Printed illustrated catalogues are produced a week to ten days prior to the sale and fully illustrated online catalogues appear on internationally known web portals and our own website. If you subscribe to our popular e-subscription service you will be notified when the catalogues are available.

Viewing is normally held as follows three days before the sale:

Sunday 10.30am-2.30pm; Monday 10am-7pm; Tuesday 10am-4pm; Sale day 9am-10.45am

Collectors Sales

Areas covered in these sales include: Militaria; Scientific Instruments & Cameras; Dolls & Teddy Bears; Diecast & Tinplate toys including Dinky, Corgi, Bing, Marklin, Hornby etc; Coins; 20th Century Decorative Arts including Royal Doulton and Beswick; Transport memorabilia; Printed ephemera including postcards, autographs & stamps.

Illustrated online catalogues are uploaded approximately one week prior to the sale and notification is sent through our e-subscription service.

Viewing is normally the day prior to the sale 2pm-7pm and morning of sale from 9am.

The Sporting Sale - Guns and Country Pursuits

These specialist offerings cater to an enthusiastic country pursuits audience. They include sporting and game guns, gun and cartridge cases, antiques fishing tackle, sporting art, country clothing and accessories. As Registered Firearms Dealers we are able to take delivery of guns on behalf of deceased estates and ship items on behalf of purchasers. Obviously there are special conditions attached to these sales which we are pleased to discuss on an individual basis.

Printed illustrated catalogues are produced a week to ten days prior to the sale and fully illustrated online catalogues appear on internationally known web portals and our own website. If you subscribe to our popular e-subscription service you will be notified when the catalogues are available.

Viewing is held the day prior from 12pm-7pm and on the morning of the sale from 9-10.45am with the sales commencing at 11am.

The Antiques and Fine Art, Collectors and The Sporting Sales have online illustrated catalogues, live online bidding facilities and, within reason, an in-house domestic and international despatch service. Catalogues appear at: www.byrnesauctioneers.co.uk; www.the-saleroom.com/Byrnes and www.ukauctioneers.com

www.byrnesauctioneers.co.uk